

Do You Know a Viet Nam veteran?

Did you or someone you know serve in Viet Nam? The City of Tullahoma is dedicating the first spring concert to our Viet Nam veterans. March 29, 2013 is the fortieth (40th) anniversary of the with-drawl of combat troops from Viet Nam. To recognize those veterans and salute them for their service, a concert will be held at the Tullahoma National Guard Armory on Highway 55. The event will have a social period to mingle and observe displays, followed by a few words from local Viet Nam vets, and then music. The music will be primarily of that era, the 60's and early 70's. The date for this event is SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2013 and is open to all. The exact schedule is still being worked out, but it is being planned as an evening event. As additional details are worked out, the information will be released.

The City would like to invite the community to this event and express thanks for these brave men and women that so selflessly served our country during a difficult time. The City encourages anyone having memorabilia from that period and would like to display it, to notify the Chief of Police so a table or an area can be arranged for you. We ask that no weapons or munitions be brought to the event and displays should be in good taste and suitable for families. Veteran groups are invited to set up tables or a display in order to share the programs they provide our service members. So save the date, SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2013, and continue to watch for event updates.

If you would like to reserve a table or if you have any questions, contact Chief Paul Blackwell, (931) 455-0530, or pblackwell@tullahomatn.gov , or Parks and Recreation Director Kurt Glick, (931) 455-1121, or kglick@tullahomatn.gov .
