A major objective of the department is providing community programs that contribute to the quality of life of our citizens and visitors.

A. Public Presentations: the department is often called upon to present programs, speeches, and discussions on a number of topics. In order to share the information, the department uses a variety of outlets: Churches (3), Local TV (24), Civic Clubs (2), TPD Tours (5), Schools (10), and recurring Newspaper articles (26), and other locations (29)

IV

B. Media: The department understands that modern technology allows many media outlets to share information with the community. The department has embraced the technology and utilizes popular and innovative ways to keep the community informed. Such outlets include:

FACEBOOK – the department maintains a page that frequently shares investigative information, requests for assistance, employee spotlight, and generally information for the public.

Website – the city’s website link to the department provides information about department programs, information, and points of contact.

Crime Reports – is an on-line application that features data in a map display of incidents that TPD responds to.

Tullahoma Police Department

Text A Tip – an anonymous program that permits citizens to contact the department, report an incident, and remain anonymous. The application provides for a back and forth communication with authorities to gain the information while remaining anonymous. The application can be through cell phone or internet programs.

NIXLE – a messaging service that permits the department to send vital information to enrolled citizens via text message or email. A single message can be sent to a large number of recipients for the purpose of critical events, amber alerts, road closures, or other immediate notifications.

Tullahoma Police Department

C. Checkpoints & Saturation Patrols: the department participates in GHSO programs to detect and deter impaired driving. The department schedules DUI checkpoints and saturation patrols on a routine basis to focus on the incidents of impaired driving. During 2013, the department conducted four (4) DUI checkpoints and six (6) saturation patrols

D. Prescription Drug Take Back: The department provides for the safe and anonymous disposal of expired and unused prescription medications. During 2013, a total of 422 lbs, up from 294 lbs in 2012, pounds of medication were turned in to the department for destruction.

E. Child Safety Restraint Program: The department participates in the GHSO program providing child restraint systems to citizens, at not charge. The five TPD technicians provided 69 child systems and provided installation training and checks to 83 others.

Tullahoma Police Department

F. Gov Deals: The city participates in the online auction program that provides for the recurring and quick disposal of surplus and seized property. During 2013, the department was able to dispose of surplus police vehicles, seized property, and multiple items that were found property.

G. Other programs: The department continues to participate in programs that occur throughout the year. The department supports various community programs and projects by funding assistance and personnel involvement. Such activities include the Tullahoma Youth Development, Coffee County Leadership, Employers Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), Coffee County Anti Drug Coalition, Special Olympics and others.
